Information about joining the International Legal Technology Association (ILTA)

If your organisation is a member of the International Legal Technology Association (ILTA) you may participate as part of that membership.

To check membership status, type in the first few letters of your organisation's name and click Search here:

www.iltanet.org/currentiltamembers

If your organisation's name is returned, the membership is active and you can set up an online account by:

- Visiting www.iltanet.org.
- Click the Sign In/Register button.
- On the login screen, click the Create an Online Account button.
- Enter your business email address and click the Continue button.

If your organisation is not a member you can find out more about membership here:

<http://www.iltanet.org/get-involved/membership>

or by contacting Sarah Chipping at schipping@iltanet.org.
