Is it a typo? Is it a term? What does it mean?

Why bother with eLearning?

Define eLearning – don't we already do that?

ISO 27001:2013 - Standards Manager/IT Director

Passwords Are Like Pants

Don't leave them
out where people
can see them.

Change them regularly.

Don't lend them
to strangers or your friends.

Staff don't want eLearning, they want a human?

Onto the IT Induction Reduction – Key Elements

- Keeping it relevant
- eLearning would not be used as a brain dump - we didn't want to overload content
- Reality based Scenarios
- Look and Feel
- Emotional Connection
- Branding
- Engaging
- Capture Learning
- Impact
- The Flow
- Time – e.g. ideally no longer than 20 mins
- Delivery Method

Lessons Learned and Feedback

Conclusion: Key items we took away from the project

BLearning

---

- Keep it simple
- Don't get too bogged down in wanting it to be perfect
- Start with one course and with each course you create you build confidence
- Don't obsess about the LMS Platform; each has its own pros and cons, but most of them will do what you need!
- Make the eLearning appropriate to the audience e.g. language used, emotional connection, accessibility
- Measure the impact
